

SCAAHE AWARD
OUTSTANDING CONTRIBUTION TO HEALTH EDUCATION
Nomination Information

The purpose of this award is to recognize exemplary efforts in the area of health education at the local or state level. Nominees for this award can be individuals or organizations. Nominees do not have to be members of SCAAHE or even reside in South Carolina, but should have advanced health education in South Carolina. Nominees may have received this award previously, but not for the same contribution being considered. There can be several Outstanding Contributions to Health Education Awards each year. Members of the SCAAHE Awards Committee are not eligible.

Nominee(s) name, work and home addresses, work and home telephone numbers, and e-mail address.:

Nominator's name, work and home addresses, work and home telephone numbers, and e-mail address.

Please explain why this (these) person(s) or organization should receive this award by addressing in detail as many of the following items as possible:

1. Contributions to the discipline or practice
2. Contributions to health education knowledge/research
3. Innovative approaches to health education practice or programs
4. Examples of mentoring in the profession (include statements from those mentored)
5. Strengthening or promoting health education within the organization, community, or institutional setting
6. Instrumental in affecting the passage of health legislation/policy
7. Examples of leadership in organizations or committees
8. Describe challenges successfully met
9. Clearly identify the persistence and perseverance that the person(s)/organization exhibited in the face of adversity
10. Describe how the person(s)/organization dealt successfully with controversy

Nominations are made to: SCAHPERD
 SCAAHE AWARD
 OUTSTANDING CONTRIBUTION TO HEALTH EDUCATION
 1301 Columbia College Dr.
 Columbia, SC 29203

Complete information demonstrating how the applicant meets the criteria for the award must be provided to the Honors and Awards Committee with the submission of the nomination form. Incomplete applications will not be considered. Submission deadline is September 6th.